DISINHERITED BY MME. PATTI

The Diva Scandalized by Her Favorite Nephew's Actions.

Sued for $50,000 by a Husband, She Cute Him Off Without a Cent.

Mme. Adelina Patti has been scandalized by the recent doings of her favorite nephew, Al-fredo Barilli, whom she has always held out one of the heirs of her fortune, and accord-ing to despatches from Kansas City this ere to do with him.

The cause of this sudden change of feeling s a pending divorce suit and an action for ,000 damages, in which Barilli has become mixed up.

The plaintiff in both suits is Dr. M. P. , of Chicago, who brings the divorce suit against his young wife, and the action for damages against Barilli, whom he charges with allenating her affections.

Barilli is now living in Kansas City, but he formerly lived in Atlanta, Ga., with his amily. He was a professor of music, and and a school there.

Mrs. Horine, who went to Atlanta last year to stay with her mother, became acquainted with Prof. Borilli, with whom she began studying, and the result was, it is alleged, a on, which soon got to the ears of the injured husband. The story became known in Atlanta, and six months ago, according to the Kansas City despatches, Barilli deserted his wife and children and went to Kansas

He Horine, who had obtained from his wife a number of letters written to her by Barilli, laid them before Mme. Patti when she was in thing of the scandal in her peoblew's family, when she knew the whole truth she was very indignant, and sent for Barilli to come to
